Meiling, do you still want comments on the doc? It looks like it's been locked down for discussion at GTM. A few high-level thoughts until then:

One more high level Q:

(Know timing there is tricky.)

Trying to get a high level understanding of concerns/issues/opportunities overall, and we'll update this to a more definite proposal after we get the early input for everyone.

Hi Product/UX team,

Thanks for the helpful brainstorm a couple of weeks ago about our UI/UX reveal! We're now targeting and so I'm hoping to get us all aligned so you have enough lead time to prepare any necessary materials.

Here's a brief to get us started - could you take a look and comment in detail? I'm still sharing with PR as well, so a lot of this may continue to evolve, but I still want to give you a preview ASAP. I've tagged you in a couple of specific comments/questions.

Please also avoid sharing this doc out more broadly at this stage. It's at draft 0.5 and I'd prefer to include other folks later, when our needs are more defined!

Best, Meiling
